

Amsterdam Creative: Spot-On!

by the Netherlands Foreign Investment Agency UK & Ireland

VIP Luncheon

The Netherlands Foreign Investment Agency (NFIA) and amsterdam inbusiness teamed up on Wednesday 10 February 2010 to host an exclusive VIP Luncheon for UK marketing and advertising agencies with a focus on Amsterdam Creative City.

Wave Recording Studios' flying start

'Making sure you have different eggs in one basket' was one of the main reasons Wave Recording Studios searched beyond the Soho and UK borders for a new establishment. The best part of this move was the ease of expanding their footprint. Approximately a year ago the audio post production company set up shop in Amsterdam further entering the Continental European market. Read more on Mr. Warren Hamilton's experiences when establishing Wave Amsterdam.

"I knew Amsterdam to be a busy market but the vibrancy and quantity of work that is out there for those who seek it, astonished me"

Warren Hamilton,
Wave Recording Studios

Boards Summit Europe, 24-25 March 2010

Boards Summit Europe, an event that is dedicated to the development of business and creative opportunities for those in the world of advertising and commercial production, will be held in Amsterdam this year.

Fact finding trip to Amsterdam

amsterdam inbusiness offers you the chance to be at the very heart of the advertising industry by providing an exclusive fact finding trip during Boards Summit 2010 to Amsterdam Creative City.

amsterdam
business

unsubscribe

Netherlands Foreign Investment Agency

The NFIA, an operational unit of the Dutch Ministry of Economic Affairs, assists and advises foreign companies wishing to establish their business in the Netherlands. The NFIA shortens the time-to market by providing advice, information, practical assistance and access to a broad network of business partners and government institutions.

Pioneers in international business